

Traincon! 2

We had fun on the Texas Eagle to San Antonio

Let's do it again!

Sasquan, the 2015 Worldcon, is in Spokane

Take the Empire Builder with your fellow fans. No connections, no airport hassles. Just relaxation and conversations with others on their way to the con.

And on our way, visit Glacier National Park. Historic hotel, historic bus tours. Some of the most beautiful scenery anywhere. Not to be missed!

See reverse for tentative itinerary and further details

FURTHER DETAILS

Tentative group reservations have now been made. Tentative because, for each leg of the trip, we need 20 people to qualify as a group and get the 20% discount on the basic rail fare. We can have a lot of fun with fewer people, of course – this is just about the group rate. If we don't have 20, everybody will make their reservations individually.

COSTS): Note that Amtrak quotes prices as per-person basic rail fare, with the room charge (per room) added to that. Room prices include dining care meals at no additional charge.

Chicago – East Glacier Park: Basic rail fare $150.30 adult, $141.95 senior; roomette $687.00

East Glacier Park – Spokane (coach): Basic fare 46.80 adult, 44.20 senior

Spokane – Chicago: Basic rail fare $150.30 adult, $141.95 senior; roomette $589.00

Glacier Park Lodge (reservations directly to hotel): $193 + tax & service charge = $234.09 (total for 2 people sharing room; meals not included)

Red Bus Tours: TBD
