Thursday Procession Schedule

10:10 am – The Doctor Who Procession. 13 Doctors. 50 Companions. Millions of Daleks. 8 Masters. And 2 robot dogs. That’s a complex universe! Following the Doctor Who fan film (CC 205, 9:30 – 9:59 a.m.), come for a walk as your favorite Doctor, Companion, Ally, or Adversary from over 50 years of Time Lords!

2:00 pm – The Mad Scientist Procession. Mad, am I? Or just misunderstood?
From Victor Frankenstein to Agatha Heterodyne, from Steampunk to Japanese monster movies, science fiction loves its mad scientists – and their creations! Come for a walk as your favorite mad scientist or science experiment gone wrong.

All processions will start at the statue near the breezeway between the Convention Center and the INB.

Newsletter submission deadlines: 7am and 2pm

God Is An Iron

From the pages of Spider Robinson's MIND-KILLER, the self-contained story God Is An Iron has been adapted for the stage by Black Box Productions of Montreal. Please note that the story contains possibly disturbing elements and is not for children.

When Joe finds Karen in the middle of a suicide attempt, he is left to put the pieces of her shattered body and mind back together. As they explore the depths of pain and pleasure, can these two broken people find something worth living for? Tonight at 8:30 pm, CC 100B.

Ask Me About My Pronouns

Pronoun ribbons are available for anyone who wants to use them. These ribbons tell you the correct pronouns to use when referring to their wearer, so you don't need to guess and risk being wrong. Pre-printed ribbons include he/him, she/her and they/them. If your pronouns are different, you can fill them in on a blank ribbon.

Pick up your ribbon between the Sasquan store and the Dealer's Room!

Trailer Park Sessions

Want to see and hear about what's coming up in movies, TV, theme parks, and more? Come to the first two Trailer Park sessions, where Keith and Alan will show and talk about the latest trailers. Thursday morning from 11-noon in Room 207 is a family-oriented show, including stuff that won't be shown to the adults in the second session at 4-5:30 in Ballroom 100B.
