From the Sasquan Chair:

There are over 60 people in scooters or wheelchairs at Sasquan. Please be aware of these people. They may be below your eye level, but do not walk into them or step suddenly in front of them. We do not want you nor them to get injured.

All wheeled vehicles, strollers and carts must use the ramps leading out of the main halls. Please give them priority. We want everyone to have a safe and enjoyable Worldcon experience.

CDs Are In!

Please get yours at the registration desk: a CD with the Sasquan souvenir book, restaurant guide, and all other Sasquan publications.

Restaurant Guide

Sasquan's restaurant guide is available in paperback at the info desk.

FREE Bag Check for Masquerade & Hugos

We are providing FREE bag checking outside of the Masquerade and the Hugos, in order to provide more seating for people. We appreciate everyone's cooperation in seeing us on your way into the theater. Thanks!

Free Stuff!

There are freebie tables in the exhibit hall between the fan tables and the Guest of Honor exhibit. While supplies last.

Literary Beers

Literary Beers in Hall C are inside Guinan's Place, first table on the left. Guinan's will be open until 10:00 pm, but this may be extended if the Masquerade runs long.

Blood Drive

We donated 44 pints on Wednesday and the local blood bank wants more. The bloodmobile will be parked in the Breezeway from 10:30-2:30 today. Sign up just inside the CC door and go give blood!

We're Connected!

The Convention Center said we broke the record for concurrent WiFi connections. There were 1080 users, as of noon yesterday.
