How to Vote The Hugo Awards

The Hugo Award is the leading award for excellence in the field of science fiction and fantasy. The Hugos are awarded each year by the World Science Fiction Society ("WSFS"), at the World Science Fiction Convention (Worldcon). The finalists for this year's Hugo Awards and John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer were announced on Saturday, April 4, 2015. We are delighted to report that participation in the nomination process reached a record high this year with 2,122 valid ballots being cast in the 2015 Hugo Awards (2,119 electronic and 3 paper), compared to the previous record of 1,923 set by Loncon 3 in 2014.

The shortlist announcement was made simultaneously at four conventions around the world. Our thanks go to Norwescon (Seattle, Washington, USA), Minicon (Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA), Dysprosium (London, England) and Reconnaissance (Rotorua, New Zealand).

The Hugo Awards will be presented at a formal ceremony on Saturday, August 22, 2015, at Sasquan, the 73rd World Science Fiction Convention, in Spokane, Washington. We currently plan to continue the recent tradition of streaming the ceremony live via the Internet, enabling fans around the world to participate.

The official website of the Hugo Awards is www.thehugoawards.org, where you can find the full history of the Hugo Awards, as well as the names of past nominees and winners; information on the voting process, a gallery of past trophy designs, and more. The Sasquan website contains more information about the Hugo Awards for members who may not be familiar with them already.

Sasquan members are also entitled to nominate for the 2016 Hugo Awards and John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer, which will be administered by MidAmeriCon II, the 2016 Worldcon. Nominations for the 2016 Awards will open in January 2016.

How to Vote

The Hugo Awards use an Instant Runoff Ballot, To vote, mark your choices in each category in order of preference: "1" for first place, "2" for second place, and so on. You are not required to rank all the nominees in any category, and we recommend that you not vote in any category where you are not familiar with a majority of the nominees. If you decide not to vote in a given category, leave it blank. Note that "No Award" is not an abstention; it means that none of the nominees should be given the award in question. When the ballots are counted, all the first place votes will be tabulated. If no nominee receives more than half the votes, the nominee with the fewest first-place votes is eliminated and its votes are transferred to the nominees marked "2" on those ballots. This process of elimination continues until one nominee receives more than half the votes, at which point it becomes the winner (unless the votes are outnumbered by "No Award" votes under specific conditions described in Section 3.11 of the in Section 3.11 of the WSFS Constitution).

Please note that second and further preferences play no part in the vote unless and until your first choice is eliminated. This is not a point system where the second choices of many voters can overwhelm the first choice of a few voters. We suggest that after marking your first choice, you proceed by imagining that it has disappeared from the ballot, and placing your "2" by the remaining nominee you most prefer, and so on. This mimics the way the ballots are actually counted. Thus, even if your heart is set on one nominee, don't hesitate to give "2" (and other rankings) to other nominees you also consider worthy of the award.

Choose all your preferences carefully! If your top choices are eliminated early, your lower preferences could be the tiebreaker between the remaining nominees! No matter how much you dislike a nominee, if you rank it, the vote will be counted if all of your previous choices are eliminated.
